

6516206367.txt

The fact that there is even any consideration of banning satellite radio is abhorrent and unbelievable in a country founded on freedom of speech! If we pay for a service that we desire, so be it. The reason that broadcasters using the public airwaves are upset is because they are losing listeners due to their own shoddy programming. Money fuels this issue but freedom of speech should be the only issue here.